STUCO attend State Student Council Convention in Skiatook

Stuco attended the State Convention on Saturday, November 5 through Monday, November 7. When they arrived in Skiatook after registering and eating lunch, they attended the first session, Ted Weiss, the speaker, talked about how encouraging others is important. Then they went to the football field for activities to break World Records such as the world's biggest game of Duck, Duck, Goose. After supper they attended the second session with Billy Cordes, who discussed the timeline of life and staying on course with your life. On Sunday they went to the zoo for Project iCare. They also attended the Oklahoma Hoe Down at Bridle Creek Arena. Seniors said, "Monday morning was emotional because it was the last day of their last convention." They ate at The Cheesecake Factory on the way home.

CHS Honors Veteran's

CHS held its annual Veteran's Day Assembly on Friday, November 11. The event is sponsored by the Student Council each year to celebrate America and say thank you to our local veteran's. Michael Hart was the guest speaker. The band and choir provided musical entertainment. Crystal Bolles, one of our high school teachers, and her daughter Hailey are pictured at the right.
